

The Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) Internet web site provides a wide array of information to the public, businesses and other governmental agencies. Through this web site, information may be obtained on recent environmental advisories, recycling information, copies of regulations and program personnel contacts. Links to other web sites that may pertain to environmental issues may also be found on the MDEQ Internet site. You can visit the MDEQ web site at www.deq.state.ms.us. This brochure discusses one specific attribute of the MDEQ website: the Environmental Permits Division Homepage and the information contained therein.

Environmental Permits Division

The Environmental Permits Division (EPD) home page is the main source of information related to the permitting of activities in the State of Mississippi. Applications and other forms are available on this web page. Technical guidance is an added feature to the EPD home page, providing necessary information for the accurate completion of environmental applications. Links to enDx and enSearch online are also provided. You can visit the EPD home page at www.deq.state.ms.us/MDEQ.nsf/page/epd\_home.

enSearch online offers businesses a way to review the status of applications, business information, all current permitting actions, and the review of site visits recently completed by MDEQ staff. You can visit enSearch online at <http://opc.deq.state.ms.us/>.

Technical Guidance

The technical guidance web page provides information related to the technical aspects of the permitting process. From air emission standards to hazardous waste considerations, from storm water management guidance to solid waste issues, businesses are guided through the regulatory steps of permitting. These guidance documents are prepared by EPD staff, who are responsible for the review of your applications. Some of the technical guidance documents found on-line at www.deq.state.ms.us/MDEQ.nsf/page/epd\_TechGuide are listed below, grouped by media type.
